Such reports shall include, but need not be limited to, the following information:

2. The number of individuals relocated from buildings inspected by the three-quarter housing task force, disaggregated by whether such individuals were given a rental assistance subsidy, the type of subsidy provided, and the type of housing to which the individual was relocated, including but not limited to private apartments, single room occupancy dwellings or temporary housing.

c. The first such report shall cover the period from June 1, 2015 to March 31, 2017.
